Fast

Ripple Design & PR provides fast, reliable services to clients, and guarantees excellent communication throughout all phases of a project.

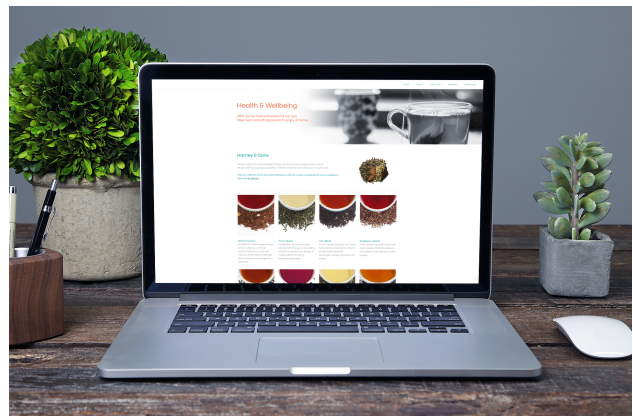

Affordable

Without the huge overhead costs of larger agencies, Ripple Design & PR is able to provide clients with a range of affordable options.

Effective

Understanding your business, clients and goals is the starting point of any project, and helps Ripple Design & PR to achieve success.

George is fantastic. I would highly recommend working with him in any aspect of your business. He has created the most stunning website for my business, and his knowledge on marketing and all the little extras in between is truly amazing! He is extremely professional and super fast at responding to any questions I have. I am so pleased to have and to still be working with him.

Creative Ripple

Creative Ripple is an online magazine created by Ripple Creative Limited that supports and promotes New Zealand Creatives across a wide variety of fields.

George Arthur-Amohau began the side project in 2017 because he saw a need for more accessibility to emerging New Zealand creatives and saw this as a way to connect creators from all over the country.
